

Child Protection in Sport Unit Training Courses

CPSU Training course	Who is this for?	What does this cover?	Would this be useful for me?	How do I apply?	What does this cost?
Time To Listen (NGB)	Lead safeguarding officers in National Governing Bodies	Skills and knowledge for lead officers including taster sessions in a variety of safeguarding subjects and the opportunity to practice managing safeguarding concerns.	This would be useful if you have a lead (or deputising) national role for safeguarding – including putting safeguards in place and responding to child protection concerns.	Contact cpsu@nspcc.org.uk who will be able to provide you with the latest dates and booking information.	There is no charge for Sport England and UK Sport funded bodies (with whom we are currently working) including accommodation costs. For charges for other bodies, contact cpsu@nspcc.org.uk for information
Time To Listen (CSP)	Lead safeguarding officers in County Sport Partnerships	Skills and knowledge for lead officers including taster sessions in a variety of safeguarding subjects and the opportunity to practice managing safeguarding concerns.	This would be useful if you have a lead (or deputising) role for safeguarding within your CSP – including putting safeguards in place and responding to child protection concerns.	Contact cpsu@nspcc.org.uk who will be able to provide you with the latest dates and booking information.	There is no charge for CSP lead officers
Risk Assessment/Safe Recruitment	Those responsible for making	Information about safe recruitment, particularly the risk	This course would be useful for all involved in risk assessing DBS	Contact cpsu@nspcc.org.uk who will be able to	There is no charge for Sport England and UK

	recruitment decisions for organisations	assessment of DBS disclosure information.	information in recruitment and selection including safeguarding lead officers, case management group members and managers.	provide you with the latest dates and booking information.	Sport funded bodies (with whom we are currently working) excluding accommodation costs. For charges for other bodies, contact cpsu@nspcc.org.uk for information
Case Management	Sports organisations with case management systems in place. This course is designed to be attended by two people from each organisation: ideally the safeguarding lead and a member of the case management group.	The opportunity to reflect upon existing organisational case management processes including consideration of cases within your sport and work through a case study through all the stages of case management.	The course will be useful for organisations who would like to review their case management processes and obtain consultation on case issues. Lead safeguarding officers and chairs of case management groups may be appropriate people to represent your case management group. This course is suitable for those organisations who have met the Intermediate level of the Safeguarding Standards and have case	Contact cpsu@nspcc.org.uk who will be able to provide you with the latest dates and booking information.	There is no charge for Sport England and UK Sport funded bodies (with whom we are currently working) excluding accommodation costs. For charges for other bodies, contact cpsu@nspcc.org.uk for information

			management systems in place. If your organisation is still developing case management systems, discuss this with your CPSU links as you may benefit from consultation alongside or followed by attendance at this training.
Management Board training	Sports management boards	A combination of training and consultancy to enable management boards to reflect upon safeguarding within their organisation from a strategic point of view and consider areas for development and growth.	Most management boards find it useful to arrange this training at some point to provide the opportunity to increase organisational knowledge about and support of safeguards. This enables an identification of risks and strengths and support of the safeguarding lead within the organisation.	Discuss what you would like from this training with your CPSU link to arrange the agenda, timings and arrangements.	This is only available for organisations with whom CPSU are currently working for whom there is no additional charge.
Time To Listen (county/regional safeguarding officers)	Safeguarding officers at a county or regional level within NGBs.	Skills and knowledge for county or regional safeguarding officers.	Useful for those in those undertaking safeguarding work at a regional or county level.	The NGB lead officer can liaise with their CPSU link if they are not currently delivering this	This course takes a day to run, including preparation time. There is

	This course can also be adapted for NGB leads in amalgamated sports bodies.		May be useful as an adapted course for other safeguarding leads within an organisation.	training. You may have access to a sport specific version of this training which is equivalent to Time To Listen (club).	generally an additional charge for this training – discuss this with your CPSU link for information.
Time To Listen (club welfare officers)	Club safeguarding officers	Skills and knowledge for club welfare officers.	Important training to inform club welfare officers and deputies to provide them the information and support required for this role.	This course is delivered by NGBs and CSPs. NGBs can advise on the most appropriate route. CPSU routinely advertise and tweet about delivery of this course but do not deliver it ourselves.	CPSU orientate tutors for CPSs and funded NGBs. NGBs will then fund and manage delivery of the training
Bespoke training	As required	Examples of bespoke training are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Safeguarding for performance coaching • Safeguarding deaf and disabled children • Case management 	It is useful to consider bespoke training in discussion with your CPSU link to address safeguarding knowledge and skill gaps in your organisation.	Discuss with your CPSU link.	Discuss with your CPSU link.

		groups
Webinars	Available for all	Provided by CPSU on a variety of topics. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Information sharing • Online safety • Anti-bullying 	Topic based – useful to equip you with information to support safeguarding in this area.	All webinars are advertised on the CPSU website – www.thecpsu.org.uk – and on Twitter - @theCPSU You can also learn about them in the CPSU newsletter – subscribe through the website.	Free.